

Linda Fieldstone, M.Ed., Co-Chair of the ACR and FLAFCC Elder Justice Initiatives on Eldercaring Coordination, is past President of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts (AFCC) and its Florida Chapter (FLAFCC). She was Secretary of the AFCC Task Force on Parenting Coordination 2005 and recorder of the 2019 Task Force to update standards. Ms. Fieldstone is on Florida Supreme Court Rules and Policies Committee and was recognized by the Florida Supreme Court in 2018 for Excellence in ADR “in honor of her visionary leadership, professional integrity and unwavering devotion to the field of alternative dispute resolution.”

She is involved in research, training, and consultation internationally and has articles published on high conflict families, family court services, empirically based parenting plans and parenting and eldercaring coordination. Ms. Fieldstone was Supervisor of Family Court Services, servicing families in conflict for the 11th Judicial Circuit, Florida, for 26 years.